

Year 1 descriptive fiction writing

Context:

Children had read the story 'Jack and the Beanstalk'. In previous lessons, they wrote a description of the magic beans and the giant's castle. The children made a class mind map of adjectives to describe Jack's feelings and used these to write their own sentences.

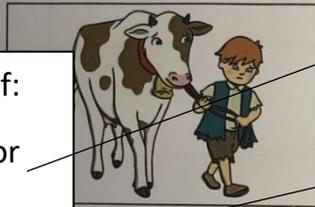

Pupils are confidently and independently able to apply their knowledge, after discussion with their teacher:

To write sentences in order to create short narratives.

Use simple sentence

Thursday 11th May 2023
LO: To use adjectives (feelings)
LO: To use the conjunction 'because'

An awareness of:
capital letters for names;
Finger spaces;
Full stops to end sentences

Jack is feeling down because he has to sell the cow.

Jack is feeling great because he sold his cow
for magic beans.
Jack is feeling fearful because the giant is chasing him.

Use adjectives to describe

To write lower case and capital letters in the correct direction, starting and finishing in the right place with a good level of consistency.

Year 1 – Letter

Context:

Children had the opportunity of looking after live chicks in school. Children wrote a letter to the chicks to see how the chicks are getting on since they have left Clifton. Children had the opportunity to explore features of a letter before writing one.

Use of features of a letter:

Greeting
Information
Conclusion
Sign off

Use of capital letters

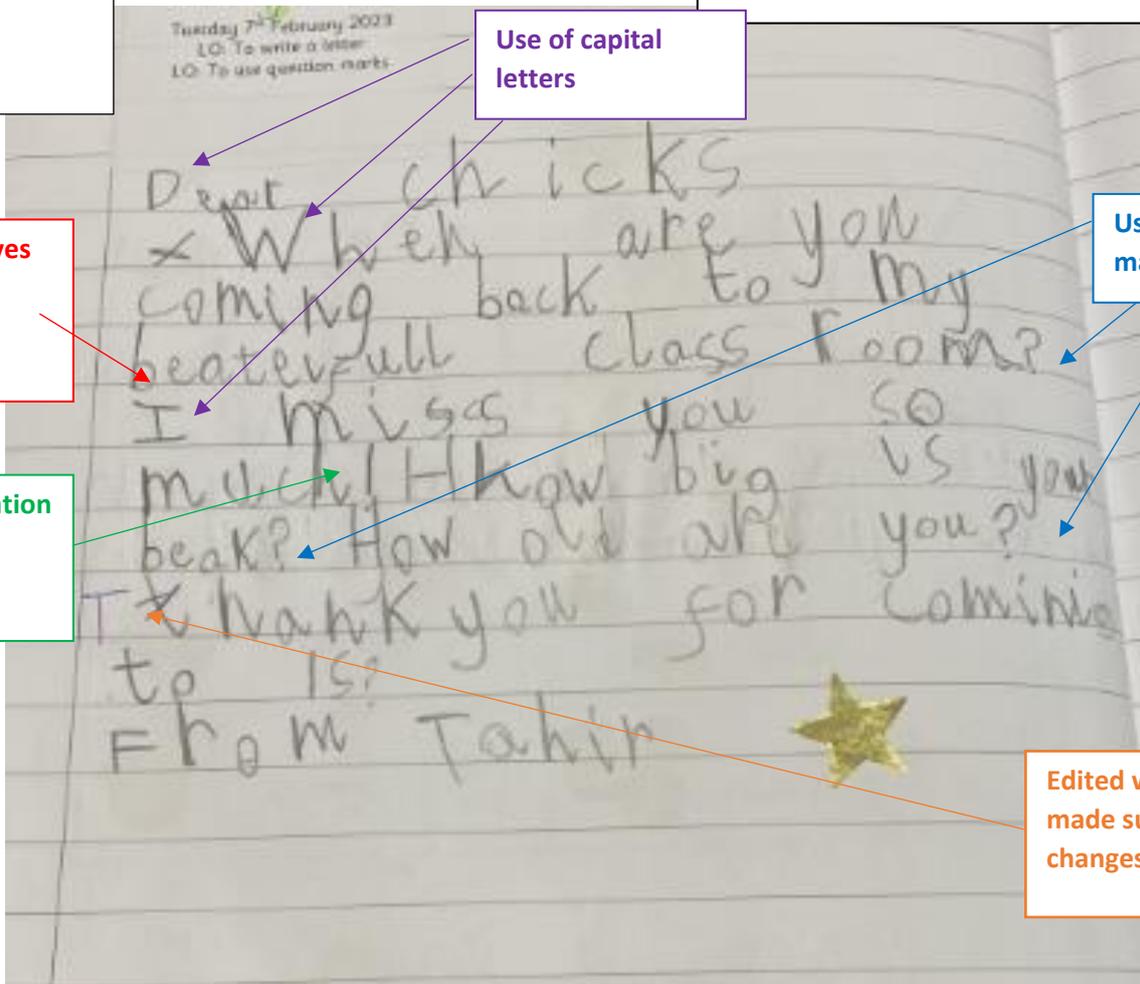

Use of adjectives to describe:

Beautiful

Use of question marks

Use of exclamation marks

Edited work and made suggested changes

Year 1 - Narrative

Context:

The children have learned the story of Jack and the Beanstalk. They have role played the story and retold it using actions and props. The children have also sequenced pictures of the story and have used these to say sentences about what is happening at different points in the story. The children have studied the characters and their feeling during different points of the story too.

Success Criteria:

Speak in full sentences

Past tense

Third person

Story language

Tuesday 23rd May 2023
LO: To write the opening of a story.
LO: To punctuate sentences correctly

A long time ago ~~it~~ lived a poor boy ^{ow} called Jack. Jack had to sell his cow. Jack ~~R~~ was devastated beca^e he loved his cow. Jack meets a old man. I will give you ~~the~~ ^{magic} magic beans for your cow. Jack's mum was ~~griouss~~ ^{griouss} and shouted you sell one only cow for some yeusles beans. The next morning Jack saw a beanstalk and decided to climb up it.

these these these these these

Story language used

A long time ago

Past tense

called was

Conjunctions

and because

Third person

Sentences punctuated with capital letters, full stops, exclamation marks and finger spaces

Think and write sentences to tell a story in their own words